Rock Island Repays Defeat Administered by Davenport One Week Ago.

CASE OF RATTLES IN THE NINTH

Capt. Williams Leading in Error Making—Team Leaves for Iowa City.

It's a horse apiece now with Rock Island and Davenport on the ante-season baseball games. Rock Island won yesterday afternoon's exhibition game at Twelfth street park 4 to 3, the same score by which Davenport defeated the local aggregation on the grounds across the river a week previous.

It was a plain case of rattles with the visitors. The routers went after them in the ninth inning and three costly errors were made, two of them by Dal Williams, captain of the Davenport team, who was covering first. The other was made at third. Twelve hundred people witnessed the contest despite the weather was anything but comfortable for the enjoyment of outdoor sport.

There was a new face in the Rock Island lineup, Shields, signed to try for third, having reported from his home in Canton, Ill. He played second, fielding the position admirably. He was weak at bat, but this may be overcome through practice. For a first appearance he did well. Shields looks the ball player.

Both Sides Score in First

First Inning: Davenport—Ives drew free transportation and took second on a passed ball. He was sacrificed on to third by Ruby and scored on Schoonhoven's hit to right. Gwin flied to the pitcher and Martin struck out. Rock Island—Thornton swatted, waiting for the third strike. The ball got by the center fielder and the runner brought up at third. Rebscher and Lister went out, and Vandine placed a beautiful two-sacker in center, scoring Thornton. Lally pushed one over to Williams and was safe on the first baseman's fumble. Vandine crossed the rubber. Moore hit to short, the ball was fumbled, and Lally was safe at second. Charnier struck out.

Second Inning: Davenport—Williams and Wilder were out. Davis hit to second and was safe on an error. Hughes went out. Rock Island—Shields drove safely into left, but lost an effort to reach second. Lakoff and Thornton fanned.

Third Inning: Davenport—Ives flied to Lister. Ruby hit to third and was safe, preventing Lister from getting both hands on the ball. The runner took second. Schoonhoven hit to Rebscher, who fumbled, the runner being safe. Schoonhoven stole second. Gwin fanned and Martin flied. Rock Island—Rebscher and Lister were out. Vandine singled to left, and Lally flied.

Fourth Inning: Davenport—Williams singled to center. Wilder, Davis and Hughes did not reach base. Rock Island—Moore, Charnier and Shields went out in order.

Ives Comes in Again

Fifth Inning: Davenport—Ives walked. Ruby struck out. Ives stole second. Schoonhoven singled in center and made second, Ives beating the ball home. Gwin singled in left. Martin hit to the pitcher and Schoonhoven was tagged at third. Williams flied to right. Rock Island—Lakoff went out. Thornton singled to left, but failed trying for second. Rebscher struck out.

Sixth Inning: Davenport—Wilder, Davis and Hughes expired easily. Rock Island—Lister, Vandine and Lally were the only ones to face the pitcher. Nothing doing.

Seventh Inning: Davenport—Ives singled. Ruby followed suit. Schoonhoven flied. Gwin slammed a two-bagger to deep center. Ives registering. Ruby was caught off watch at third. Martin went out. Rock Island—Moore and Charnier flied and Shields struck out.

Eighth Inning: Davenport—Williams handed one to second, but Shields fumbled. Wilder hit to third and Williams was tagged at second. Davis pushed a hot one over to Shields, who redeemed himself by doubling Wilder at first. Rock Island—Lakoff flied. Thornton hit to short and bent the ball to first. Rebscher put one into the same place and Thornton was caught at second. Lister forced Rebscher at second.

Bad Inning for Davenport

Ninth Inning: Davenport—McKenna struck out, and Ives and Ruby flied, both to Lister. Rock Island—Vandine hit to Williams and was safe on the latter's error, but but was forced in to the arms of the enemy by Lally's hit to first. Moore rolled one over to third and was safe, Williams making his second error in the inning by dropping the ball, which had been whipped to him by Davis, Lally arriving at third. Wilder tried to catch Lally, the ball went through the third baseman's legs, and Lally registered. Moore going to third. Charnier hit to the infield, but the backstop dropped the ball just as he was in the act of tagging Moore at the plate. The following is the score:

Notes of the Game

Lakoff pitched the entire nine innings for Rock Island yesterday. Hughes was on the slab for the visitors until the fifth, when he was relieved by McKenna, one of the numerous reliever-candidates that have been called in by Manager Hayes.

Shields, who played second for Rock Island yesterday, has a flowing shock of hair of the Italian sunset hue.

Hagerman, the local pitcher, was chosen as umpire yesterday, but he quit in the fourth inning owing to a dispute by Manager Thornton of one of his decisions. Wilder, the Davenport catcher was at bat. He tried his third bunt, and under the rules should have been retired. Hagerman held otherwise, and when Manager Thornton protested he played the baby act.

Lundin, for Rock Island, and Scott, for Davenport, finished the game as umpires.

Davenport won Saturday's game at Grinnell with the college boys 4 to 1. In the case of a Davenport player that posted bulletins in Rock Island yesterday afternoon that Davenport had won the game with Rock Island, it is highly probable that the wish was father to the thought.

Manager Thornton and 17 of the men he has signed for Rock Island left this morning for Iowa City, where the week will be spent in practice
